Company: Dotlinkers

Location: Poland

Category: computer-and-mathematical

Our client builds systems deployed everywhere from Europe to New Zealand, the largest of which is responsible for fuel distribution at dozens of airports and hundreds of road transport facilities across Australia. You will be working in the European timezone with other engineers based in the EU however you will be interfacing regularly with Australian counterparts. This is an unbeatable opportunity to work from home, earn excellent rates and contribute to projects with a real-world impact.

As a Devops Lead, you'll have an impact on building a new global team that will take care of the Devops area. One of your first tasks will be to interview and decide with whom you'll work.

Requirements:

Experience in hiring/recruiting new team members

Kubernetes

AWS

Linux – particularly Ubuntu

Terraform

Nice to have:

Python

Benefits:
