Company: Cavendish Professionals

Location: Poland

Category: other-general

Cavendish Professionals is looking for an SAP MM Consultant (m/f/x) for a permanent remote role with an internationally renowned consultancy firm in Poland.

You will have to be based in Poland, and occasionally travel to the end client for key project phases, where you would be responsible for helping clients navigate transformational change, enabled by SAP S/4HANA.

Your profile:

Extensive experience in consulting roles with MM specialisation

Experience managing full life cycle implementations in SAP S/4HANA

Strong communication and proactive track record

Previous experience with solution design and adoption

Fluent English and Polish, both written and spoken

This role requires confidence in coaching and presentation, but with the possibility to be a part of a diverse and driven team, earn significant compensation and benefits, and the opportunity for further training, this role offers the potential for the right candidate to excel and progress their career.

If you are interested, please contact our consultant for a confidential discussion using the contact details provided, or click apply to send an updated copy of your CV.

Cavendish (Recruitment) Professionals Ltd prides itself on being an equal opportunities employer and we believe that inclusion starts with the applicant. All qualified applicants will be considered for employment regardless of gender, race, age, sexual orientation, religion, or belief.
