Do you enjoy creating innovative technical solutions to solve complex problems?
Would the opportunity to provide technical consulting services to our customers excite you?

Join our prestigious Professional Services team

Our Professional Services team works directly with customers to provide a unique combination of deep technology expertise and understanding of their business environment. We provide technical hands-on services and best-practices in the areas of web performance, DevOps and media delivery.

Partner with our customers

You'll be involved with projects from design through implementation, testing and sign-off. As the technical expert, you are expected to deliver the best solutions to our customers. You'll collaborate with a cross-functional team. You will work in a fast-moving environment, with our cutting-edge technologies and innovations which guarantee.

As a Solutions Architect, you will be responsible for:

Owning all technical delivery aspects of Akamai solutions, including configuration, debugging, testing, and go live support.

Identifying service enhancements and potential problems to ensure continuous improvements to the quality of our customer's digital properties.

Cooperating with other functional teams to resolve issues that arise during the various phases of the implementation of a solution.

Being a trusted technical consultant for our customers, helping them navigate our product portfolio

Do what you love

To be successful in this role you will:

Have an understanding of TCP/IP, DNS, HTTP(s) and TLS

Have a problem solving mentality

Demonstrate experience in a customer-facing role

Be fluent in using Restful APIs, JSON, versioning and repositories (e.g. Git, bitbucket) and scripting languages

Demonstrate experience in working in a DevOps environment with complete application development life cycle (e.g. developing, testing, monitoring and planning)

Be familiar with one or more software development principles and multiple environments architecture

Work in a way that works for you
